

How did African teens, who arrived in Rhode Island as forced immigrants, contribute to America's history, culture, and economic development?

Featuring

Keith Stokes

Director of the Rhode Island
Economic Development Corporation

Sponsored by the Wiggins Society

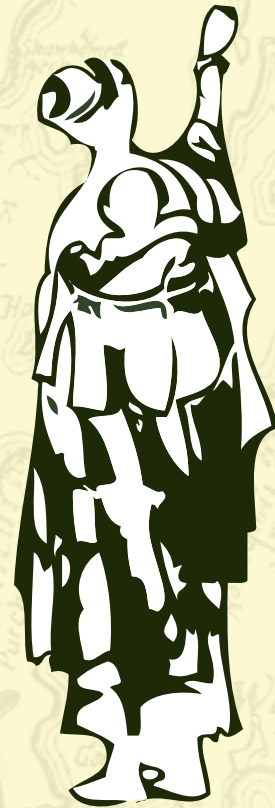

CELEBRATING

Rosalind C. Wiggins' Spirit and Passion

Africa's Children in 18th Century Rhode Island

April 28, 2011 | 7-8:30 p.m.

Paul Cuffee School
459 Promenade St., Providence, RI 02908
www.paulcuffeeschool.org

FREE ADMISSION

For adults and youth 12+. Child care will not be provided.

Please RSVP by April 15 (Limited Seating Available) to Julia Karahalis at 401-453-2626 x118 or jkarahalis@paulcuffee.org