

PAUL CUFFEE SCHOOL

A Maritime Charter School for Providence Youth

Want to become part of a high growth, collaborative school culture where your contributions will make a difference?

APPLY to PCS!

Paul Cuffee School (PCS) employs dedicated, hard-working individuals who are eager to learn and grow while applying their skills and talents every day. Our distinctive learning communities are continuously evolving and striving to meet annual performance goals and growth expectations within a culturally responsive workplace that values integrity, accountability, and results.

To fulfill our mission, we seek team members who are culturally and professionally competent as well as congenial, adaptable, resilient, and innovative. Combining and honing our teams' strengths helps to ensure that the 800 K-12 students we serve are receiving the quality of instruction, programs, and resources they need to successfully achieve their college and career goals and become contributing members of society.

About PCS

Paul Cuffee School nurtures the development of each student's potential within a vibrant and supportive community of learners. We align a rigorous K-12 academic curriculum focused on the development of independent critical thinkers and knowledgeable involved citizens. Like our students, we strongly encourage employees to set annual performance and professional development goals. As members of a cohesive, culturally responsive community, we take responsibility for our thoughts, words, and actions, and engage in continuous improvement by practicing the growth mindset and skillsets that accompany success.

"What excites me most about Paul Cuffee School is our willingness to always improve, reflect and grow."

Vivi Schultz, Upper School Principal

"My favorite part of my job is building relationships and having connections because everywhere I go it travels with me."

Janell Blyden, Middle School Athletics Coordinator

"The important thing about Paul Cuffee School is that it's a caring and inclusive community."

Michelle Carden, Lower School Visual Arts Teacher
